A Letter from the Rev. Mr. WHITEFIELD to the Rev. Mr. ——— of Boſton, giving a ſhort Account of his late Viſit to Bermudas.

Bermudas May 17, 1748.

Rev. and dear Sir,

NINE Weeks ago I arrived here from Charleſtown; and ere now I thought to have had the Pleaſure of ſeeing you and my other dear Friends in New-England—This was the Reaſon why you have not heard from me before.—But as Providence ſeems to appoint me another Courſe, I cannot omit this Opportunity of ſending you a ſhort Account of my laſt Excurſion to Bermudas.— I ſuppoſe you have heard of our ſafe and pleaſant Paſſage.—We were but nine Days I think on Board, and I do not remember that I heard one ſingle Oath Swore from Land to Land.—As we went round the Weſt Part of the Iſland in order to come into the Harbour, I was very much ſtruck with the Variety of agreeable Proſpects and Landſkips it afforded. —The Scene was quite new, and quite different from any I had ever beheld before, and tho' I have been here ſo long, yet it appears very delightful to me ſtill.—Immediately upon my Arrival ſeveral received me in a plain, artleſs, free Manner, and deſired me to expound the very firſt Evening.—I readily complied, continued ſo doing for ſeveral Days, & was ſo pleaſed with the Heartineſs and Attention of the People, that I could not help thinking but that I was got among my Friends in South-Wales, or the Clothiers Country in Glouceſterſhire in England.— One Mr. Holyday a Clergyman of the Church of England, received me with open Heart and Arms.—The firſt Lord's Day after my Arrival I read Prayers and Preached in two of his Pariſh Churches; and the longer I ſtaid the more kindly he behav'd to me: the two other Church Clergy choſe to keep at a Diſtance.—But one Mr. Paul an aged Preſbyterian Miniſter was very free to let me have the Uſe of his Meeting-Houſe, which being pretty large and in a central Part of the Iſland, I preached in it to very large Auditories for eight Sundays ſucceſſively.—His Excellency the Governor was pleaſed to come and hear me when I preached in Town; and tho' he tho't proper (I ſuppoſe for fear of diſobliging at home) to prohibit my Preaching any more in the Churches, yet with moſt of the Council and principal Gentlemen of the Iſland, he treated me with great Reſpect, and invited me more than once to dine with him. I have now preached near ſeventy Times in all—On the Week Days chiefly at private Houſes, up and down in different Parts of the Iſland, ſometimes within ſome times without Doors to larger Aſſemblies (as they tell me) than were ever ſeen upon any Occaſion on this Iſland before— The longer I continued here, the larger the Auditories grew.— The Word was frequently attended with a divine Power, & many have been bro't under promiſing Convictions, which I truſt will iſſue in ſound and ſaving Converſions — When I preached my farewell Sermon laſt Lords Day we had a moſt ſolemn Seaſon— It much reſembled the Appearance we had ſometimes at Mr. Webb's and the other Meeting-Houſes ſeven or eight Years ago in Boſton—Tho' I have been uſed to ſuch frequent Partings, yet the People's weeping almoſt unmanned me— Since then I have received many Tokens of their Love, and am furniſhed with a variety of Stock for my Sea-Store— God willing, I have promiſed to viſit them once more—For indeed Bermuda's People are dear to me—I have ſpent nine happy Weeks among them, and was never ſo little oppoſed during ſo long a Stay in any one freſh Place where I have been, ſince my firſt coming out into the World— Indeed many I hear were prejudiced againſt me before I came—But what cannot GOD do; He has the Hearts of all in his Hands, and when our Ways pleaſe him, can make our Enemies be at Peace with us— My being at Bermudas hath been alſo bleſſed in ſome Meaſure to the reſtoring of my bodily Health— The Air particularly to a Stranger is quite Salubrious—At leaſt I have found it ſo—You know what a weak State I was in when I left Boſton. Bleſſed be God, I can now preach daily; and tho' I think when I lay my Hand upon my Stomach, I can ſay, hic hæret letbalis Arundo, yet I am as well as a worn out Pilgrim can expect to be on this Side Eternity—In a few Days I hope to embark in the Brigg Capt. Eaſtern bound for England—Letters from thence inform me of the ſpread of the Goſpel— Thither I think the Providence of God calls me, tho' I hope to return in a ſhort Seaſon to my beloved America again— Till then, farewell dear Bermudas, farewell all my dear Friends on the different Parts of the Continent; Follow me, Oh follow me with your Prayers—Hold up your Hands in my Behalf, and by the Grace of God I will go on fighting—Oh that I may die in the Field! At preſent this is the Language of my Heart.—

A chearful and ſubmiſſive Mind,
That Life and all Things caſts behind,
Springs forth obedient at thy Call;
A Heart that no deſire can move:
But ſtill to adore, obey, and love,
Give me, my Lord, my Life, my All —

You, Rev. Sir, I am perſuaded will not be unmindful of me— As the Lord enables, you and all my dear Friends ſhall ever be remember'd by, Reverend and dear Sir,

Your moſt affectionate, tho' unworthy younger Brother and Fellow-Laborer in our common LORD.

George Whitefield.

LONDON, June 4.

Extract of a Letter from a Perſon of Diſtinction at the Hague, dated May 27.

'There are three conjectural Reaſons given here for the ſudden ſigning of the Preliminary Articles: The firſt is, That the King of Pruſſia had declared to the French Court, that as his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty was in War with the Empreſs Queen, and not with the States General of the United Provinces, he could not help being aſtoniſhed, that the Armies of France did not attack her Imperial Majeſty's Territories, but inſtead of that took Towns, and even Provinces from the Dutch, which he was determined not to ſuffer any longer but would rather come himſelf, at the Head of 40,000 Men, to the Aſſiſtance of the Allies. The ſecond Reaſon which is given is, That a Negociation had been diſcovered, and very far advanced, for concluding a ſeparate Peace between the Courts of Vienna, Turin, Madrid, and Verſailles; which had determined thoſe of London and the Hague to be before-hand with the two former, and ſign the Preliminaries in the ſaid ſudden manner they did. And the third Reaſon for ſo doing is ſaid to be, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland having juſt before made a Review of the Auſtrians, who were to have been 50,000 at the Beginning of March, and not being then above 26,000, it was concluded, that the Court of Vienna was taking the Money of the Maritime Powers, and at the ſame Time laughing at them, and expoſing the Republick to be ſubdued; this it's ſaid was what determined his Britannick Majeſty and their High Mightineſſes to ſign the Peace upon the Conditions propoſed by France laſt Year to Sir John Ligonier, if that Court had not altered its Reſolutions. The Earl of Sandwich having found the Count de St. Severin favourably inſtructed upon this Subject, the Plenipotentiaries of the Republick publick did not the leaſt heſitate to join in what would be extremely pleaſing to the Subjects of their High Mightineſſes. Nothing is ſaid about the Miniſters of Madrid and Genoa.

Auguſt 27th, 2748. ^ Mellar St. John.

WHEREAS the preſent Method of diſpoſing of Libraries of deceaſed Perſons, or of thoſe departing this Province, or others, by expoſing them to Sale at public Vendue, in Lots or Parcels not ſorted or entered in Catalogue, is liable to many Loſſes and Inconveniencies both to Buyer and Seller (ſince any Perſon who may incline to purchaſe a ſingle or few Books, muſt take the whole Parcel of different Languages, Subjects, and perhaps odd Volumes for which he has no Occaſion.) And as the Parcels ſo expoſed are ſeldom very conſiderable to attract Buyers, and no previous Advertiſement is publiſhed, few Perſons who want to buy have Opportunity to be preſent. And as there is no Bookſeller in this Province who can ſupply a neceſſary Variety of Books, or take in for Sale ſuch Books as the Owners may incline to ſell,

The Subſcriber propoſes to take in Books from ſuch as are willing to diſpoſe of the ſame, with a Catalogue of them and the loweſt Price affixed, for which he will give Receipt to be accomptable.

Theſe Books ſhall be regularly claſſed and diſpoſed according to their different Subjects and Languages; which Books with their Catalogues and Prices Gentlemen deſiring to purchaſe may have acceſs to at all Times, at the Free-School near Charles-Town.

As ſoon as a ſufficient Number is lodged in the Subſcriber's Hands and not diſpoſed of by private Sale, the Collection ſhall be ſold in ſome proper Houſe in Charles-Town ſeparately, by the Rules of Auction practiced at London (the Time, Place, and Quality of Books being previouſly advertiſed in the Gazette) which public Sales (if the Propoſer meets with Encouragement) ſhall be regularly three Times a Year.

Such Gentlemen as cannot attend ſuch Sales may ſend their Commiſſions to their Friends in Charles-Town, or to the Subſcriber, who will faithfully ſerve both Buyer and Seller.

Maps, Globes, mathematical Inſtruments, Medals, Medalions, &c. will be taken the ſame Care of.

As the executing the above Propoſal will require great Care and Charges, the Propoſer hopes, that it will not be thought unreaſonable, to allow for all Parcels of Books, &c. as ſhall be ſold within the Year, receiving the Price and paying the ſame, above the Value of 100 l. Currency, Five per Cent. and for ſmaller Parcels or ſingle Books Seven and an half per Ditto; and for ſuch Books, &c. as cannot be ſold either privately nor at the public Sales within the Space of Twelve Months, to the Satisfaction of the Seller, that Two and an half per Cent. be allowed the Propoſer.

☞ BOOKS, &c. will be received in Terms of the above Propoſal after the firſt of September next, at the Free-School near Charles-Town, where proper Accommodation is fitted up for them: And it's hoped, that all Lovers of Books and Learning will countenance a Propoſal, which may prove very uſeful to the Public, as well as of Service to

Their moſt humble Servant,
HUGH ANDERSON.

WHEREAS I intend to depart this Province early in the next Spring, I deſire all Perſons indebted to me to diſcharge their reſpective Debts on or before the firſt Day of December next.

I have to diſpoſe of, at private Sale, a Plantation containing 587 Acres or thereabouts, ſituate on the North Side of Ashley River, about eight Miles from Charles-Town, with a good Dwelling-houſe, Out-houſes and other Conveniences thereon,—a Flock of Sheep, and ſeveral Head of black Cattle,—alſo my Houſe and Gardens in the Broad-ſtreet, Charles-Town,—ſeveral Pieces of uſeful and faſhionable Plate, two Gold Watches one chaſed the other curiouſly enamelled,—a very good Harpſicord, and ſome good Houſe Slaves. WILL BE EXPOSED TO SALE,
At Public Vendue,
At Mrs. Butler's Houſe on Charles-Town Neck,

UPWARDS of Thirty Plantation Slaves, among which are Sawyers, Coopers, and ſome likely Boys. Credit will be given on the ſaid Sale for One Year, paying Intereſt and giving ſuch Security as ſhall be approved of by BENJAMIN WHITAKER.

WHEREAS John Remington has for ſome Time paſt advertiſed himſelf "NOTARY PUBLIC, by lawful "Authority from England, ſworn and admitted," which Authority it ſeems is derived from the Archbiſhop of Canterbury. Theſe are therefore to give Notice to all Perſons, and in particular to the ſaid John Remington, that John Rattray acts as ſole NOTARY PUBLIC of this Province, under Commiſſion from his Excellency the Governor, and that he intends to ſupport his Right under that Commiſſion, againſt the ſaid John Remington and all others who ſhall attempt to interfere therewith. John Rattray.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR having been pleaſed to appoint the Subſcriber ſole Vendue-Maſter, This is therefore to give Notice, to the Publick, that he is ready to ſerve faithfully all Perſons who may have Occaſion to employ him in that Office.

AND WHEREAS ſome Perſons have taken upon them to ſell Goods at Publick Outcry, without Authority for ſo doing, the Subſcriber hopes they will deſiſt for the future, and that he ſhall not be under the diſagreeable Neceſſity of conteſting the Rights of a Commiſſion granted agreeable to the Laws of the Province.

William Hopton.

THERE IS TO BE SEEN at the Treaſurer's Office in Charles-Town, the Model of a Plow for weeding, trenching, ſowing, and covering INDIGO or Grain, ſent from England by Mr. James Crokatt, for that Purpoſe.

At a Court of Common Pleas, holden at Charles-Town, on Tueſday the 9th of Auguſt, 1748.

JOHN BEE, having been duly ſummoned and returned to ſerve as a Juror at the ſaid Court, made Default, for which he is fineable at 5 l. Procl. Money, unleſs he can ſhew good and ſufficient Excuſe, upon Oath, why the ſaid Fine ſhould not be levied at the ſaid Court to be holden on the firſt Tueſday in October next, purſuant to the Directions of an Act in that Caſe made and provided.

JAMES WEDDERBURN, C.C.P.

TO BE LETT at Intereſt, on perſonal Security, by the Veſtry of the Pariſh of St. Thomas in Berkley County, about the Sum of One Thouſand Pounds Currency.
